

WORK OR PLAY?

AT SWENSON SAY FAGÉT, IT'S BOTH.

Todd Beyreuther is training for the 2004 Olympic games and his employer, Swenson Say Fagét is his biggest supporter. Not only is Todd given the flexibility to train, his partners attend meets to cheer him on.

That's the kind of employment philosophy that makes Swenson Say Fagét one of Washington's best companies to work for.

Isn't that the kind of neighbor you want?
